Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
  - I. Claims 1-14, drawn to a testing system comprising an error detector to generate an error signal, classified in class 702, subclass 117.
  - II. Claims 15-23, drawn to a testing system comprising load board, tester including a phase locked loop (PLL) coupled between the divider and the DUT, classified in class 702, subclass 118.
  - III. Claims 24-29, drawn to a testing system comprising multiplexer, a PLL, classified in class 702, subclass 120.

2. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention has separate utility such as the testing system of group I does not require a phase locked loop (PLL) coupled between the divider and the DUT of group II and the testing system of group II does not require an error detector to generate an error signal of group I. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Inventions I and III are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention has separate utility such as the testing system of group I does not require a multiplexer and a phase locked loop (PLL) coupled to at least one of the plurality of dividers of group III and the testing system of group III does not require an error detector to generate an error signal of group I. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Inventions II and III are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention has separate utility such as the testing system of group II does not require a multiplexer, wherein the multiplexer coupled to a plurality of oscillators and dividers of group III and the testing system of group III does not require a load board of group II. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a petition under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
